Celebrate Family Day in Coquitlam

Whether you choose skating, swimming, sports, movie time, brunch or a pirate party, create special memories with your family over the long weekend as we celebrate Family Day in Coquitlam.

From Friday, Feb. 17 through to the holiday Monday, Feb. 20, the City is offering a variety of activities for the whole family. Find all the details about Coquitlam's Family Day activities at coquitlam.ca/familyday.

We gratefully acknowledge the financial support of the Province of British Columbia for some of these activities.

Facility Holiday Hours

Coquitlam's civic facilities have special operating hours or may be closed over the holidays. Visit facility web pages for details at coquitlam.ca/holidayhours

Celebrate Family Day at Coquitlam's Community Centres

Saturday, Feb. 18
Explore the forest ecosystem alongside your little one in Eco Trekkers at Mundy Park (course ID #116257), play badminton with your family at Centennial Activity Centre (**course ID #110018*) and Maillardville Community Centre (**course ID #114443*), or watch a movie together as a family (The Croods: A New Age (PG), course ID #115188).

Sunday, Feb. 19
Get on the indoor court for a game of badminton with your family at Maillardville Community Centre (**course ID #113958*).

Monday, Feb. 20
If you haven't had a chance to check out Coquitlam's newest community centre, we've got a fun day of activities planned at Maillardville Community Centre (1200 Cartier Avenue). This includes family brunch (course ID #114940), drop-in sports (**course ID #114926 and #114927*), family movie time (Encanto (PG), course ID #115186), a Family Day Event with fun crafts, games, face painting and two sessions of Family Zumba in the gymnasium (course ID #114931) and more.

Sign up for these registered programs and activities online at coquitlam.ca/familyday, phone 604-927-4386 or register in person during recreation facility operating hours.

**These activities require registration and are available to register for 48 hours in advance.*

Swimming and Skating for All Ages

Families looking to skate or swim have a range of options at City Centre Aquatic Complex (1210 Pinetree Way) and Poirier Sport & Leisure Complex (633 Poirier St.). Enjoy a swim in the pool or get on the ice for a Family Day Public Skate or Stick, Ring and Puck. View drop-in schedules and admission rates at coquitlam.ca/dropin.

Celebrate with Park Spark

Celebrate Family Day with a fun Pirate Parrr-ty on Friday, Feb. 17 from 5:30 – 8:30 p.m. at Lafarge Lake. Drop in and join Park Spark staff at the TD Community Plaza for pirate-themed activities, music and fun games. Then grab a map and go on a treasure hunt around Lafarge Lake. For more information, visit coquitlam.ca/parkspark.

Check out the illuminated pirate ship floating on Lafarge Lake!

Get Outside

You can also get active outdoors by exploring one or more of our Coquitlam parks over the Family Day weekend. For park locations and their amenities, visit coquitlam.ca/parks.

Celebrate at Home

If you're looking to stay close to home this Family Day weekend, we have suggestions to bring the fun to your living room.

Add a bit of movement to your family's routine with our Family Day Workout video, led by fitness instructor Niki and her family. Visit coquitlam.ca/spirit and click on the Fitness at Home tile to get started.

#SupportLocal and enjoy takeout from one of your favourite restaurants. Go to visitcoquitlam.ca for a list of takeout and delivery options.

Learn about Coquitlam's history and heritage with the Coquitlam Archives at coquitlam.ca/onlineexhibit.
