CITY GOVERNMENT AND YOU!

The City provides a range of services including water and sewer, garbage collection and road maintenance, but it is also involved in strategic planning, growth management, recreation programs and facilities, and financial planning.

How does the City manage to do all of this? A Mayor and eight Councillors, elected every four years by Coquitlam residents, are responsible for setting the City's policies in accordance with the Local Government Act. The community is involved in decision-making through City committees and consultation opportunities.

RECREATION

Coquitlam offers programs and recreational activities for all ages and abilities, along with fully equipped pools, community centres, libraries, sportsfields, ice rinks and sports arenas. The City currently maintains over 80 parks featuring trails and bike paths, playgrounds, sports fields, and picnic areas.

The City also partners with community agencies and groups to help residents get connected and active in the community.

To register for a program call Coquitlam's staff assisted registration line at 604-927-4386 or register online at coquitlam.ca/prc.

CITY EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

The City regularly has a variety of job opportunities. It promotes diversity and equal opportunities in the workplace. Volunteering is also a great way to meet new people, gain valuable experience, have fun, and get involved in your community – we have many different opportunities to choose from. Visit coquitlam.ca/jobs for info on both.

BYLAW ENFORCEMENT

The City has bylaws that help to protect and serve the community and ensure consistent standards so that all may enjoy a high quality of life. We endeavour to resolve complaints through education and voluntary compliance where possible. Some of these bylaws relate to: Animal Care and Control; Noise; Zoning - Private Property; Unsightly Premises; Street and Traffic; Signs/Posting; and Business Licensing. If you have questions or concerns about a Bylaw or Animal care issue please give us a call at 604-927- 7387. We would be happy to help.

BUSINESS LICENCES

The City of Coquitlam requires every person doing business within the City to hold a valid business licence. Starting a business is a major undertaking and we have a number of resources available to assist you with that process. The City is also currently accepting applications for vending carts and vending vehicles for food and goods. There is also a Tri Cities Intermunicipal Business Licence program allowing mobile businesses based in Coquitlam, Port Coquitlam or Port Moody to obtain an add-on to an original Business Licence and operate legally in the other two municipalities. Depending on the type of business, you may also require other permits or licences not regulated by the City of Coquitlam such as liquor and health licences.

FUN THINGS TO DO IN THE CITY

Visitors are drawn to Coquitlam because of the diverse mix of outdoor activities and destination attractions. We are a complete community with excitement and splendor for those who love the natural flavour of our outdoors, while presenting a wealth of shopping, nightlife and entertainment opportunities for those with a more urban appetite. Visit coquitlam.ca/explore for info on all the things to see and do in our city.

SECONDARY SUITES

A secondary suite within a home offers homeowners benefits while providing an affordable housing option. Like all housing, secondary suites must be regulated. The City has a Secondary Suite program designed to balance the needs of the homeowner with the health and safety requirements that apply to all housing.

PUBLIC SAFETY

Police protection (RCMP) and Coquitlam's Fire and Rescue services contribute to ensuring Coquitlam is a safe and secure place to live and raise a family.

The City has many programs that help residents learn about Crime Prevention, child safety and Emergency Preparedness.

- In an emergency, dial 9-1-1 on your telephone for fire, police or ambulance services.
- Non-emergency fire services 604-927-6400
- Non-emergency police services 604-945-1550

TAXES & UTILITIES

The City of Coquitlam provides residents with many important services: water, sewer, drainage, emergency services including police and firefighters, roads and traffic control, parks and recreation facilities including pools and ice rinks. Property taxes are the City's main source of money to pay for all of these services. City Council determines the budget it needs to provide the services and a Property Tax Rate is set to collect the necessary taxes. Residential properties in Coquitlam also receive an annual utility bill at the end of February each year. The City has a number of payment options, including Tax and Utility Prepayment Plans that enable residents to pay their tax and utility bills in monthly installments.

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Coquitlam is a vibrant and growing community that offers economic opportunities and advantages that benefit both residents and businesses. We are committed to creating a business environment that allows your business to grow and prosper. The City is committed to the continuous improvement of the business environment and is dedicated to ensuring that you receive excellent value from your investments in our community. Coquitlam's major employment sectors are: Professional Services; Retail / Wholesale Trade; Manufacturing; Technology; Public Administration; Transportation; and Construction. coquitlam.ca/ecdev

GARBAGE & RECYCLING

Coquitlam's waste management system helps us reduce the amount of garbage we send to landfills – after all, waste is not always waste! Food scraps from our kitchens can be composted and many items can be recycled. The system is good for our community and our environment. In Coquitlam, we separate our waste into three different categories: 1. Green Cart for kitchen scraps, food-soiled paper and yard trimmings; 2. Recycling blue box for containers, newspapers, glass and paper products; and 3. Garbage which is waste that can't be composted or recycled. Residents who live in single-family residences can also have up to four large household items collected each year. If you live in an apartment or a condominium, please contact your Property Manager or Strata Council for information on collection services. Find out more at coquitlam.ca/trashtalk or call 604-927-3500.

URBAN WILDLIFE

Coquitlam has many forms of wildlife that are attracted to garbage. There are tips related to reducing garbage and animal attractants available on the City's website to help residents keep you and the community safe from bears and other animals.

ANIMAL SHELTER & DOG LICENCES

Did you know dogs over 6 months old need a licence? A dog licence protects your pet by providing an easy-to-identify dog tag and registration with the Coquitlam Animal Shelter. If your pet is lost, the fastest way to be reunited with your dog is by this dog tag and licence. We invite you to visit the Coquitlam Animal Shelter to meet the animals and tour the facility. On a tour of the shelter you can see some of its specialty features first hand, find out more about volunteer opportunities and get to know the animals up for adoption. The Shelter welcomes all kinds of donations including cash donations, food, towels, blankets, pet beds, carrying cages, toys, and other animal related equipment.

EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS

Emergencies and disasters can occur anywhere, at any time. It could be anything from an earthquake, to a flood, to a severe winter storm. In the event of a major disaster, you and your family should be able to take care of your basic needs for at least 72 hours. We encourage everyone to prepare their personal or family emergency plan, and have an emergency kit ready that includes basic supplies as well as special needs items.

WINTER WISE

Coquitlam has experienced unprecedented snowfalls for extended periods of time and, at other times, had no snow. In recent years, the Metro Vancouver region overall has had historic rain and wind storms. The City reviews its service priorities every year to meet the needs of our community and be prepared for snow events and any other winter storm. Flooding is something that can also happen during the winter with heavy rainfalls.

WATER & SEWER

Coquitlam's Water Management Program/System ensures that residents enjoy safe and reliable drinking water. The City purchases its water from the Greater Vancouver Water District and distributes it to every property in the City. As well, the City's Sewer Network is carefully monitored and maintained to ensure safe sewage management. It plays an important role in good health and hygiene by collecting wastewater from homes and businesses. For more information, contact Coquitlam Operations Customer Service at 604-927-3500.

BUILDING

The City's Planning and Development Department regulates land use. Their department staff can help you prior to building or making changes to your home or property. Building permits are required for all new construction, temporary buildings and for alterations to existing construction. You should always review your building requirements with City staff before commencing a project.
