

Exemptions to Anti-idling Bylaw

- Police, fire or ambulance vehicles while engaged in emergency duties, including training activities
- Vehicles assisting in an emergency activity
- Vehicles for which idling is required as part of a repair or regular pre-check maintenance process
- Vehicles engaged in a parade or race or other event approved by Council
- Vehicles idling for the purpose of actively loading and unloading passengers
- Armored vehicles used to transport money or valuables in which a person remains to guard the contents in the course of the loading or unloading of the money or valuables
- Vehicles required to use heating or refrigeration systems powered by the motor or engine for the preservation of perishable cargo
- A mobile workshop, while the vehicle is being actively used as a mobile workshop
 - Mobile workshop means: a vehicle containing equipment that must be operated inside or in association with the vehicle, or a vehicle serving as a facility for taking measurements or making observations or conducting maintenance or construction operated by or on behalf of a municipality, public utility or police, fire or emergency service.
- Vehicles required to remain motionless when necessary to avoid conflict with other traffic or to comply with the directions of a Police Officer, a traffic control signal, a sign or a traffic control person